

The Wife to her Inebriate Husband.

I loved thee in thy beauty,
I loved thee in thy pride;
And shall I now forsake thee,
When all others leave thee side?

When thou wast pure I loved thee,
In life's unsullied morn;
And now thou hast become a mark,
For the world's bitter scorn.

And shall I, shall I leave thee
Alone to keep the strife?
No! all degraded as thou art,
Yet still I am thy wife.

I swore to love thee ever,
And breathe the marriage vow;
That vow, so pure, so sacred then,
Is it less binding now?

They bid me to forsake thee,
And tell me to forget;
But memory of other days,
Is lingering round me yet.

And oh! I cannot leave thee,
For hope is strong within;
That yet thou wilt forsake the cup,
The poisoned cup of sin,

And be once more the comfort
Of this poor weary heart;
All other friends may leave thee now,
But I will not depart. [Office Branch.

Rum's Doings.—A poor drunken man who resides in the West part of Northfield, came home a few days since, completely soaked with liquor, and took up a favorite cat he had in the house, carried it out to a block he had in the yard, took his axe and cut the poor animal up into pieces. The monster then went into the house and took his infant child from the cradle, carried it out and placed it on the same block and raised his axe to despatch the child in the same way he had the cat, when his hand was arrested by some person who happened to be near, and the child was rescued.

The Rev. Thomas Spencer, of England, has been talking teetotalism with excellent effect at Hartford, New Haven, Worcester, and other places in New England. The Calendar, an Episcopal paper, published at Hartford under the canonical control of the bishop of the State of Connecticut, perpetrates the following sneer at Mr. Spencer:

"The Rev. Mr. Spencer, a clergyman of the Church of England, is lecturing on Temperance. We should think he had better be preaching the Gospel, and administering the sacraments, to which he has been set apart by the Holy Ghost."

We should think that the man who could pen such an article, had no conception of any virtue of the Gospel beyond the "living," and no appreciation of any virtue in the sacrament beyond the literal wine.—N. Y. Organ.

A man, killing hogs, became vexed, and venting his spleen, wished they were in h-l. "Oh, dear me, mother, what can he mean?" exclaimed a little girl who heard him. "Mean! I suppose the awful wretch wants his provisions sent on beforehand."

Important to Gentlemen.

EDWARD McCUBBIN has handsomely fitted up the three-story house recently erected on the site of his former stand, where he will be happy to resume his business as a barber and hair dresser. He very respectfully invites a return of his old and esteemed customers, and solicits the patronage of the public generally to the Temple of Fashion, No. 1, on 8th street, near Pennsylvania avenue. With the most competent assistants, and every description of materials that can render his operations a luxury, instead of a dull, sleepy process, he flatters himself that to him will be accorded the credit of keeping pace with the times in all that has a tendency to add to the comfort and improve the appearance of the outer man.

Not only in the face has Nature made
Its comeliness and beauty to abound,
But in the scissors' edge and razor's blade
The aids to loveliness are ever found.

Rev. J. G. MORRIS, D. D., Lecturer on Zoology.
WM. ALBAUGH, A. M., Tutor and Teacher in Preparatory Department.
H. R. GUNTER, Teacher of Writing.

The course of studies in Pennsylvania College is as extensive and substantial as that of any institution in the country. The Preparatory Department provides for instruction in all the branches of a thorough English business education, in addition to the Elements of the Mathematics and Classical Literature. The College course is arranged in the four classes usual in the institutions of this country.

The government of the students is as energetic as their circumstances seem to require. They attend at least two recitations a day, and the Faculty contemplate increasing them to three, Church and Bible Class on the Sabbath, and are visited in their rooms so frequently as to preclude the danger of any great irregularities. It is believed no institution in the United States has more exemplary young men in connexion with it. They are all required to lodge in the College edifice, special cases excepted.

The annual expenses are—for board, tuition and room, during the winter session $61 87 1-2; for the summer session, $41 87 1-2; washing, $10; wood, $3 00. Total expense, $116 75. Boarding can be had in town at $1 25 per week.

There are two vacations in the year, commencing on the third Thursdays of April and September; each of five weeks continuance.

The summer session will commence on Thursday, the 22d of May. The annual commencement takes place on the third Thursday in September. The Trustees have recently made various arrangements which will increase the efficiency of the Institution. They have increased the number of Professors and provided for the most ample instruction of the students.

Professor Baugher and Haupt are prepared to board boys and to exercise a special supervision over their studies and deportment, and Parents who may prefer placing their sons under their care, will be secure in regard to their proper management, under arrangements such as pertain to the family circle.

WEEKLY NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

To bring this paper yet more nearly within the reach of such as desire to take by the year a cheap paper from the seat of the General Government, a reduction will be made in the price of it where a number of copies are ordered and paid for by any one person or association at the following rates:

For Ten Dollars six copies will be sent.
For Twenty Dollars thirteen copies;
For each sum of Ten Dollars, above Twenty, eight copies will be forwarded; so that a remittance of Fifty dollars will command thirty-seven copies.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW LIBRARY OF LAW AND EQUITY, under the direction of Francis J. Trout, esq., of Philadelphia; Hon. Ellis Lewis, of Lancaster; and Wilson McCandless, Esq., of Pittsburgh.

This work contains the best productions of English law authors, without regard to priority of claim on the part of any American publisher. Such books are now notoriously too dear. The reason is, that as fast as they appear, they become monopolies in the hands of booksellers in the Atlantic cities. Under the plea of right, acquired by the addition of notes of American decisions, the latter claim an undivided title to those works, and set a burdensome price on them. The publishers of the work now offered to the profession throughout the Union, will not respect such titles, but will reprint the standard British law books as fast as they emanate from the London market. Should new editions of the works of such writers as Starkie, the Chittys, Stephen, and Archbold, appear, they shall also be included; and digests of equity and law decisions—works which have been studiously kept out of the Law Library published at Philadelphia—shall have a place in the proposed new one, together with every new valuable English treatise on chancery or common law.

This work will be issued monthly, in numbers of 160 pages, printed on fine white paper, and good new long primer type, at seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly.

CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

The proprietors of the NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER, in order to meet the wishes of those whose circumstances or inclination do not allow them to subscribe even to a weekly Washington paper during the whole year, have determined to issue during each session of Congress, a weekly sheet styled "THE CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER," to be devoted exclusively to the publication, as far as its limits will permit, of the Proceedings of both Houses of Congress, and Official Reports and Documents connected therewith, including a complete official copy of all Acts passed by Congress during the session.

To bring the price within the means of every man who can read, the charge for this paper will be for the first session of each Congress One Dollar, and for the second session of each Congress half a Dollar.

The price of the CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER, to be issued on each Wednesday during the approaching Session of Congress, will therefore be One Dollar paid in advance.

To enlarge upon the value, to those who take no newspaper from Washington, of this publication, containing an impartial but necessarily abbreviated account of the Proceedings in Congress, including an authentic official copy of all the laws passed during the session, would be needless. The man who takes no such paper ought to take one, if he does not prefer remaining ignorant of what most nearly concerns his own destiny, and that of his family and of his posterity for ever.

When six copies are ordered and paid for by any one person, a deduction of one-sixth will be made from the price, that is to say, a remittance of Five Dollars will command six copies of the Congressional Intelligencer for the next Session. A remittance of Ten Dollars will secure thirteen copies; and for Fifteen Dollars remitted from any one person or place twenty copies will be forwarded.

Payment in advance in all cases is indispensable.

PROSPECTUS OF THE INVESTIGATOR.

This Journal will be devoted to the subjects of Religion, Morality, Science, &c. Religious subjects will be treated in a temperate but fearless manner, and the tenets of the various sects, as occasion may require, will be examined with candor and impartiality. No personalities calculated to displease, will ever be admitted.

Education and Temperance will be advocated. Party Politics will not be touched upon; but dissensionate arguments on general and abstract questions may occasionally appear; and Political questions forming a connection with Religion (such as, the union of Church and State, &c.) will be freely discussed.

As to scientific subjects, preference will be extended to those of a practical and useful character.

The Er Cetera will embrace a variety of topics of general information, &c. &c. The articles will, chiefly, be original. When a selection can be made with decided advantage, it will be done. The subjects will be varied as much as possible, to suit the various tastes of the community.

The first number may be considered as a specimen, though containing less variety, it is believed, than the succeeding ones will contain.

It is intended to be monthly, and of 32 pages.

It has to make its way into the world without a father's name to help it, as many a child has been obliged to do before it; and, if it only receives that encouragement which they who first help themselves usually receive from the American public, it will not despair of success.

The terms are: 12 1-2 cents each number; $1 50 for the year in advance.

Those wishing to receive the work regularly, can do so by calling at the Periodical agencies of Whitaker & Co., Taylor & Co., Penn. Avenue; Kennedy's Bookstore, F street, in Washington; Clement's agency, Georgetown; Bell & Entwistle, Alexandria; Shurtz & Taylor's, Baltimore; and at the principal Periodical agencies in Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

It would be a great convenience to the Publisher to have the names of subscribers deposited at either of the above places, so that the work can be sent regularly.
